Brevard, North Carolina—On July 29th at 8:30 PM, Brevard Music Center (BMC) will present Harry Potter and The Sorcerer's Stone™ in Concert. Summer festival audiences can relive the magic of Harry Potter™ soaring across the big screen in high-definition at Whittington-Pfohl Auditorium and experience the music of John Williams' unforgettable score, performed by BMC's Brevard Sinfonia under the direction of Maestro John Jesensky. Tickets can be reserved online at brevardmusic.org/tickets or by calling the BMC Box Office at 828-862-2105.

In Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone™, Harry Potter learns on his 11th birthday that he is the orphaned son of two wizards and possesses magical powers of his own. At Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, he learns the high-flying sport of Quidditch and plays a thrilling 'live' chess game en route to facing a Dark Wizard bent on destroying him.

Justin Freer, President of CineConcerts and Producer/Conductor of the Harry Potter Film Concert Series explains, "The Harry Potter film series is a once-in-a-lifetime cultural phenomenon that continues to delight millions of fans around the world. It is with great pleasure that we bring fans for the first time ever an opportunity to experience the award-winning music scores played live by a symphony orchestra, all while the beloved film is simultaneously projected onto the big screen. This is truly an unforgettable event."
